Badly Handicapped

The young couple who starts out upon the journey of life with a poorly furnished house is badly handicapped. The couple that leaves their home furnishing in our hands has a big handicap over the other couple. We are the recognized headquarters in this city for style and quality.

B. W. HOOKER & CO.,

Up-To-Date Furniture Dealers,

14 and 16 North Main St. New Blanchard Block.

Ambulance Calls and Undertaking Promptly Attended To.

Young Men's Suits!

The young men are generally hard to please. The average clothier is afraid to carry a stock in their sizes, 31 to 36 inch chest. We recognize the difficulty in pleasing these young fellows, and have adopted the policy of carrying a large number of Suits and having them made of cloth so attractive and style so natty that they are bound to sell. Prices from $5.00 to $16.00.

MOORE & OWENS,

NEWSPAPER CHANGES.

L. P. Thayer Leaves Middlebury For Essex Junction.

Tonight Lewis P. Thayer, for the past three years manager of the Middlebury Register company and editor of the paper, closes his labors with that establishment and goes to Essex Junction to devote himself to his private newspaper interests there and at Morrisville. During Mr. Thayer's sojourn in Middlebury he has made a host of friends and has been actively engaged in the furtherance of the town's best interests, especially through his connection with the Moosalamo club and the Addison County Business Men's association, both of which he is president. He will be succeeded by Frederic A. Hughes of Middlebury as business manager. Mr. Hughes is a graduate of Middlebury College in the class of 1902, has been the acting manager of the American Publishing company for a year past, and will continue in that capacity in addition to his other duties.

Harry C. Shaw, for four years connected with the Register, becomes the editor. For a year past Mr. Shaw has acted as Colonel Battell's secretary.
